

GENERAL SYNOD REGISTRATION FORM

Ministers and Seminary Students

"Those entitled to sit as members of this court shall include all pastors of congregations, active and retired; and every minister engaged in full-time service of the foreign missions, presbyteries, institutions, boards and agencies of the denomination, or who were retired while engaged in such full-time service; ministers involved in Presbytery-approved Christian ministries; and military chaplains, active or retired. Other ministers who deem their vocation to be an appropriate exercise of their call and ordination to the ministry may be certified annually by vote of their presbyteries as being members of the General Synod, after written application each year by such ministers, showing, to the satisfaction of the presbytery, that the minister is, in compliance with Chapter XII B.2 (k), devoting himself diligently to his sacred calling." Form of Government, Chapter XIII, C.1.

Seminary Students generally are given the privilege of the floor but no vote.
